About Waterfront Awards 2019

Experience one of the prestigious and exciting Waterfront Awards charitable evening of the year with the best skyline views in the city, as we celebrate outstanding women on Friday, July 19th, 2019 at the Globe and Mail Centre. Made possible by generous sponsors: renowned Bank of Montreal, the Globe and Mail Centre, and Trigenics Myoneural Medicine.

The Gala will be shining a light on a roster of outstanding women with remarkable achievements, celebrity presenters, live local entertainment, and a silent auction in support of the Abuse Hurts (Canadian Centre for Abuse Awareness). One of last year's highlight was a special presentation by Mississauga Mayor, the honorable Bonnie Crombie, bestowing the Legacy Lifetime Achievement Award to Hurricane Hazel McCallion. It was a sold-out affair! We expect another stellar event this year with dancing, delicious food, and many more surprises.

About Abuse Hurts

Abuse Hurts, a national, charitable organization founded in 1993 to reduce the incidence and impact of abuse through education and public awareness. Abuse Hurts assists approximately 100,000 individuals, mainly women and children, every year. (www.abusehurts.ca)

About Waterfront Magazine

Launched in 2003, the magazine appeals to an affluent, cosmopolitan and upscale audience. Waterfront Magazine is distributed to people living and working in the waterfront and downtown area. Reaching more than 100,000 readers per issue, it is the only community-based magazine distributed directly to residences and businesses through the Globe and Mail and Canada Post. Waterfront Magazine has grown into a multi-faceted media organization that offers highly relevant editorial content with informed and entertaining views, current opinions on local issues and events in the community.
